

Adaptive conformal holds coverage under drift (static conformal misses the target)

Temperature scaling improves calibration across the session gap

